AFTERNOON TEAS

Afternoon tea is said to have originated in the 1840s. Anna, The Duchess of Bedford, often became hungry in the mid afternoon and requested tea with sandwiches and cakes. Anna began to invite friends to join her and a new social event was born. Once introduced to London, afternoon tea breathed new life into the social scene and continues to do so to this day.

THE AFTERNOON TEA £16.95

The traditional afternoon tea.

Served with a selection of four finger sandwiches, scones, clotted cream and cakes. Along with a selection of teas.

THE SPARKLING AFTERNOON TEA £22.95
